

Dr. STUART S. MALAWER, J.D., Ph.D.
Distinguished Service Professor of Law & International Trade
George Mason University (School of Public Policy)

www.InternationalTradeRelations.com www.NationalSecurityLaw.net
www.Linkedin.com/in/stuartmalawer
StuartMalawer@msn.com

- Appointed by Virginia Governor Timothy Kaine, in 2009, to the Board of Directors of the Virginia Economic Development Partnership.
- Consulted with SCHEV on global studies in Virginia universities.
- Published two casebooks --- U.S. National Security Law (2009) (Intro by Senator Patrick Leahy) and WTO Law & Litigation (2007) (Intro by WTO Director-General Mike Moore).
- Developed and directed the 2009 summer's GMU/CGE Oxford Global Law Program at New College, Oxford.
- Helped to organize the Oxford Workshop on Cybersecurity with the International Cybersecurity Center which was partially funded by external sources. (Held at St. Peter's College, Oxford.)
- Published "U.S. – China WTO Litigation (2001 – 2010)" and top 10 downloads on SSRN under International Institutions.
- Presented the lead paper on Cyberwarfare at the Oxford Conference which was then published. Ranked in the top 10 by SSRN under "national security."
- Teach two graduate courses on national security and international trade relations using two websites I developed. They contain documents, PowerPoint's, videos, uploaded student team presentations, and hyperlinks to original and secondary sources.
- Edited a special issue of the Virginia Lawyer on global law in February 2010 and a similar issue is forthcoming in December 2010. Articles from various Oxford law and politics professors and officials of the new Virginia administration.
- Recent visits to India, China, Russia, Vietnam, Dubai and the United Kingdom.
- Directed several independent reading classes and sat on a Ph.D. dissertation on trade and informal economies.
- One of the lead speakers at the annual Virginia Conference on World Trade (Spring 2010).

EDUCATION:

DIPLOMA, Hague Academy of International Law (Centre for Research in International Law & International Relations);
Ph.D., M.A., University of Pennsylvania (Dept. of Int'l Relations) (program sponsored by the Wharton School and Graduate School) (also one-year at Princeton University);
J.D., Cornell Law School (International Legal Studies) (with courses in the Gov't Dept.);
B.A., University of Buffalo (three years) (American History & Russian Studies).

PROFESSIONAL

- ◇ Founder & Director of the Graduate International Transactions Program at George Mason University.
- ◇ Participated in the Virginia Governor's Trade Mission to China (2004), the Virginia Governor's Trade Mission to India (2005), Virginia Governor's Trade Mission to India (2007), the Virginia Trade Delegation to Tokyo (2005), and the Virginia Trade a 2008

Japan-SEUS meeting. [These were joint activities with the Governor's Office and the Virginia Economic Development Partnership.]

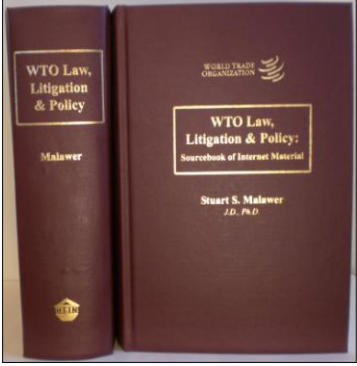

- ◇ Program Director of various graduate overseas study programs in global trade and law in Oxford, Geneva, China and India (1997 – 2009).
- ◇ Published over 100 articles and five books. Major treatise sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, "Federal Regulation of International Business." (5 Volumes).

 Recent Books by Stuart Malawer
Distinguished Service Professor of Law & International Trade,
George Mason University (School of Public Policy)

U.S. NATIONAL SECURITY LAW –
Sourcebook of Cases, Laws, Treaties &
Documents. (Wm S. Hein & Co. 2009)
ISBN 978-0-8377-1787-6

WTO LAW & LITIGATION – Sourcebook of Internet Material. (Wm S. Hein & Co. 2007)
ISBN 978-0-8377-1408-0

Dr. Stuart S. Malawer 1